

Texas Woman's University
Director of University Housing

Texas Woman's University invites nominations and applications for the Director of University Housing for a strong residential system with a vibrant living learning and family housing program. As the chief housing officer, the Director provides leadership and direction for the entire residential system at an institution of 13,300 students. This includes planning, supervision, budget administration, facility management and student development.

Qualifications:

- Masters degree in higher education, business, or related fields.
- A minimum of eight years full-time professional experience in housing/residence life.

Application process:

- Nominations and applications must be submitted electronically to TWU Human Resources at http://www.staffjobs@twu.edu
- Candidates will be evaluated by a search committee as applications are received.
- Applications received before March 15, 2010 will be given full consideration. Expected start date is July 1, 2010.